Copy of a LETTER from the Right honourable Major General Sir ARTHUR WELLESLEY, K.B. to the Trustees of the Royal College of St. Patrick, Maynooth.

Dublin Castle, 5th January 1808.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WITH a view to ascertain the grounds on which the application was made to Parliament in the late Sessions for an increase of the Grant to the College of Maynooth, and whether any exist to require an extension of the Establishment at Maynooth, and to justify the continuance of the additional Grant from Parliament, I have been directed to request that you will send answers to the enclosed queries.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

Trustees of the Royal College of St. Patrick, Maynooth.

Copy of QUERIES to the Trustees of Maynooth College, enclosed in Sir Arthur Wellesley's Letter of the 5th of January 1808.

(Copy.)

QUERIES.

1. A LIST of all the Persons admitted as Students into the Roman Catholick Seminary of Maynooth from its first institution to the 1st January 1808, specifying as to each Person, the age, the profession or station of the Father, by whom recommended, the date of admission, the length of time he remained in the College, and the profession into which he afterwards entered or how otherwise disposed of. This return to be made according to the enclosed form No. 1.

2. The Names of the Presidents, Vice Presidents, Professors, Tutors, and Lecturers who have been employed in the said College since its foundation to the 1st January 1808, specifying the places of their birth and of their education, their profession, when appointed, and their duties, their appointments, when and how vacated, according to form No. 2.

3. The present Establishment, comprehending the President and all Persons employed in the government or instruction of the Students, specifying the names, the branch of instruction or other duties, and the salary of each, also the other advantages derived from the funds of the College, such as lodging, table, &c. or fees from the Students on the Foundation or others, and in what other occupations they or any of them are engaged, according to form No. 3.

4. An Account of all the money laid out on Buildings at Maynooth from the foundation of the College to the 1st January 1806, and the greatest number of Students that actually have or that could have been accommodated at one time in such Buildings.

5. The Expence incurred for Additional Buildings since 1st January 1806, to 1st January 1808, by whose authority such buildings were undertaken, out of what funds has the expence been defrayed; the purposes of such buildings, and particularly what number of Students they are calculated to accommodate; what sums will be necessary to complete them, and the annual expence necessary for the support and instruction of the additional number of students.

6. An Account of all Contributions (exclusive of Parliamentary Grants) received in each year for the benefit of the College, whether by subscription, legacy, payments by the Students or otherwise, specifying the amount under each head for each year, and also whether in land or in money or by way of annuity, with the application thereof.

7. Whether all the necessary Expences of the Students are defrayed out of the funds of the College or what particular Expences, or to what extent are required to be borne by themselves.

8. How many Vacations there are in the year, the length of each, whether they are in fact prolonged beyond the rules, and how the Students are disposed of during such Vacations.

9. What are the regulations and practice respecting Residence during the terms.

10. What are the rules of Admission, and particularly what previous instruction is requisite to entitle a person otherwise eligible to be admitted.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IN addition to the information desired by my letter of the 5th instant, and for the purpose therein mentioned, I am directed to request that you will transmit to me a Copy of all the Bye-laws and Regulations now in force for the Government and Education of the Students at Maynooth; an account of the general course of Study; together with a list of the Books taught or directed to be read in each of the several Classes of the College.

I have the honour to be, &c.

THE expense of additional Buildings since the 1st of January 1806 to the 1st January 1808, will amount, as appears per bills and estimates given into Board of Trustees - - - - - - - - - - - - - £.10,623. 9. 3½.

This expense to be defrayed partly by Parliamentary Grant and partly by private Donations, Legacies, and Entrance Money of Scholars. The object of that part of the Building undertaken in 1806, was to provide better lodgings for said 200 Students, who were before but indifferently accommodated, as in many instances no less than three or four have been residing in one common room.

The object of the additional Building in 1807, was to procure accommodations for a greater number of Scholars; and both old and new, as actually existing, are calculated for the reception of 250.

Both Buildings undertaken per order of Trustees.

This Establishment accommodates 200 Students with Lodgings; affords them Commons and Instruction; supplies them in the public Halls with Coals and Candles during study Hours. Each Student pays £.9. 2*s*. Entrance Money; provides himself with Clothes, Books, Bedding, and Chamber Furniture; pays for washing, mending, and Candle Light for his Room. This Expense may be moderately rated at £.20. per Annum.

— N° 8. —

Vacation.—During the Months of July and August Recess, from Class a few Days at Christmas and Easter; the same at Pentecost. Students do not quit College at any of these three Periods. At Christmas, general Examen; at Easter and Pentecost, prepare for the solemn Examen and Adjudication of Premiums, which terminates the academical Year. As it is required, even during Vacation, to have leave of Absence from their respective Prelates, much the greater Part of Students remain in College, where they are well employed at stated hours in Study, Composition, and Lectures, in furtherance of the ensuing Course.

— N° 9. —

Residence.—All Masters and Students obliged by Statute to strict Residence during Term. This Residence is religiously observed.

— N° 10. —

Admission.—All Students on the Establishment are admitted according to Statute Cap. 8. de Alumnis. Each Student before Admission must deliver to the President authentic Certificates of his Age, Parentage, Baptism, of having taken the Oath of Allegiance, together with the Recommendation of his Prelate. He is then examined in the Classics and admitted, if approved of by the major part of the Examiners.

The Documents here presented, together with the Statutes which accompany them, will, it is hoped, be found satisfactory.

Bye LAWS and REGULATIONS now in force for the Government and Education of the Students at MAYNOOTH—(enclosed in Dr. Dunne's Letter to Mr. Trail.)

OMNES qui ad ecclesiastica munera obeunda destinari capiunt, ad eam vitæ perfectionem contendant, ad quam præcipuè vocantur, ecclesiæ ministri, qui cæteros ad pietatem et sanctitatem verbo et exemplo allicere atque excitare ex munere tenentur. Nemo proinde qui in hoc Collegio vivit, muneri huic, suæ et divinæ vocationi, atque hominum expectationi satisfecisse se putet, nisi divinæ plusquam humanæ sapientiæ studiis, eo potissimum tempore, quo degit in Collegio, vacaverit. Idcirco quæ ad pietatis disciplinam spectant, quæque in hoc paragrapho observanda proponuntur, non perfunctoriè, sed prompto alacriique animo, omnes Alumni ad implere studeant et peragere. Singulis diebus horâ statutâ, signo dato et benedicamus Domino audito, quilibet Deo Gratias respondeat, statimque e lectulo assurgat, ac sanctissimo Crucis signo munitus, suis induatur vestibus, et simul ac fuerit indutus, per hemihoræ spatium abluendis manibus, aptando lecto, componendoque cubiculo sedulò incumbat. Si quid supererit temporis, id ad animum orâtione preparandum impendatur.

Ad campanulæ signum omnes in Capellam conveniant; ibique S. Spiritus imprimis ope imploratâ, orationem "Domine Deus omnipotens, &c." quæ ad primam in breviario Romano reperiuntur devotè recitent, ac insuper, meditationis argumento repetito, per horæ dimidium orantes, ad splendorem æternæ lucis, oculos mentis aperiant; quô veluti diurno alimentò accepto, et sæpius per diem repetito spiritus sagenetur. Horâ autem cum dimidio postmodum elapsâ, incruento Missæ sacrificio omnes pariter religiosé intersint cui eorundem duo clerici, super pelliceis induti reverenter ministrant.

Deniquè, priusquam cubitum eant, in idem Sacellum iterùm convenientes, generali examine conscientias excutiant et scrutentur: nec non privatæ meditationis materiæ prosequenti die percipiendæ incumbant, donèc a Preside habito signo, per Silentium rectà ad cubicula pergant.

Mensa autem durante perpetua lectio fiat, ac primo quidem totum Sacræ Scripturæ legatur caput: reliquum vero temporis impendatur in lectione alicujus libri, qui simul intellectum foveat, atque diligat voluntatem, ut, quiem cibus præbetur corpori, aliquod etiam tanquam pabulum mentis suppeditet et doctrinæ. Præsidis erit libros seligere qui legantur.

Præcipuis anni solemnitatibus, et rursùs singulis quindenis diebus, post missam privatam auditam, et sacramentali confessione permissa, Angelorum pane se reficiant Alumni. Singulis autem dominicis, festisque diebus de præcepto, missæ solemni cantandæ, et vesperis pariter ad modum chori decantandis in Capella interesint, veste canonicâ talari et superpelliceo induti.

Cum autem in Ecclesia seu Capella versantur, cogitantis omnes quam terribilis sit locus iste, quoniam verè domus. Dei est et porta Cœli, animum diligenter et sensus custodiant, singulari modestiâ Corpus componant, silentium sanctè servent, et perfecte in omnibus corde et animo Christo canant gloriam. Dum verò ecclesiasticæ functiones in altari exercentur, ad illas opportunè animos intendant, ut rituum ecclesiasticorum notitiam acquirant, et in Sacris erudiantur ecclesiæ ceremoniis: quarum rationem et usum omnes exactè teneant, ut eas, cum a Chori præfecto jussi fuerint, decorè, quantum fieri potest, præstare postmodum valeant.

Imprimis autem serio cogitent alumni qui artium ac theologiæ studiis se dediderunt, quique ductores animarum et verbi Dei satores futuri sunt, quam necessarium sibi sit studium veritatis, et summi boni cognitio; et quam vehementèr etiam cavendum sit ab irreligiosa libertate, quâ prava quorundum ingenia, ut vanam eruditionis gloriam aucuparentur, ingentem religioni labem intulerunt. Considerantes ergò cujus gratiâ et quâ mercede ab iis, qui in sortem Domini sunt vocati, laborandum sit, indesinenter a patre luminum postulent sapientiam, et ad ejus gloriam omnem laborum fructum referant.

Quapropter alumni omnes lectionibus, horis statutis in respectivis scholis habendis, interesse debent, ut ibidem eruditantur facultatibus quas præceptores edocebunt. Præses itaque et studiorum moderatores curent omninò, ut alumni assidui sint in hujusmodi munere, et ne unquàm sine urgente necessitate ab eo implendo fiant immunes. Insuper Præsidibus suis obtemperantes, ingenio suo nunquàm nimis indulgeant; nec aliis utantur libris, quàm qui a Præside et Professoribus fuerint approbati. Præses autem vel alius, cui id commiserit, diligentiam adhibeat, ut scholas alumni petentes, vel ab illis recédentes, unà procedant silentio vel submissa voce loquantur; ubi justa fuerit loquendi occasio. Verùm ab omni disputatione abstineant. Si vero, quod absit, quis contumax, vel protervus deprehendatur, statim a Præside debité castigetur.

Dent operam omnes, ut ex litterariis exercitiis eum fructum capiant, quô et sibi et aliis suo tempore prodesse possint. Caveant autem ne doctrinæ fructum ipsum arrogantiâ, dicacitate, et pertinaciâ corrumpant; sed in omnibus, seu inter se disputando, seu in schola degendo, modestiam præ se ferant, ac verecundiam; paratique sint studiorum rationem reddere, quoties vel qui præsunt vel Professores postulaverint.

Quoniam necesse est bonæ spei, et imprimis honestos ornatosque adolescentulos, qui clericalem militiam, uti genus ætatis degendæ sibi constituerint non tantum doctrinâ et severioribus disciplinis informari, verum etiàm et ecclesiasticis moribus in collegio bene instituto imbui; præter cætera quæ jam dicta sunt, nonnulla ad rectè religioseque vivendum præsertim comparata, sub hoc Capite in unum complecti expedit. Incidunt enim sæpe causæ, quæ animos conturbant nec desunt aliquando rixosi et factiosi qui non cæteris, sed nec sibimet acquiescunt. Omnes ergo communem cum aliis vitæ rationem sequantur; seque ad Collegii instituta et constitutiones accommodent; neque quidquam peculiare sibi in lectulo, vestibus, libris, mensâ, aut aliaquacunque re usurpent; ut omnis quærelarum occasio, teterrimum illud vitæ socialis venenum, prorsus tollatur. Sit autem in arbitrio Præsidis vel locorum ad mensam, vel cubiculorum distributio; vel alia hujusmodi similia; qui communi bono cum semper debeat consulere, æquius et rectiùs quàm adolescentes, quorum singuli, vel quod nimium ingenio suo indulgeant, vel quod sibi tantummodò consulant, quid faciendum servandumque sit, in Domino judicabit.

Etsi habitus non facit Monachum, oportet tamèn Clericos vestes proprio congruentes ordini semper deferre; ut per decentiam habitus extrinseci, morum honestatem intrinsecam ostendant. Uniformitèr igitur vestibus nigri coloris utantur alumni in Sacris Ordinibus constituti tàm intrà quam extra Collegium: Alii vero habitu fusco vel subnigro, cum collari nigro utantur.

Silentium ad pacem pietatemque fovendam, ad mubuenda studiâ, et animi perturbationes sedandas avertendasque maxime conducens, sancté omnes statis temporibus servent. Nulla igitùr colloquia studiis admisceantur, neque ante vel immediàte post orationem, missam et Sanctorum Sacramentorum perceptionem confabulationes ullæ habeantur; ne diebus quidèm relaxationi assignatis, quorum horæ reliquæ de rebus utilibus, modestis sermonibus, sine clamore transigantur: et alumnorum verba, vultus, oculi, motus denique omnes decorem teneant, redoleantque pietatem atque disciplinam.

Et cum in omnibus quidam elucere debeat nitor et mundities quædam apparere, non erit hic alienum præscribere, ne, alumnorum vitio, parietes cubiculorum, atque solum seu pavimentum sordescant, neve ipse vestibus dilaceratis in publicum prodeant, atque ut agrestem fugiant negligentiam.

Si singuli in singulis cubiculis degant, quod desiderandum est, sine venia haud in aliena ingrediantur. Quod si domus symmetria exigerit, et plures lectuli in uno cubiculo existerent, ac ideo plures alumni in eo simul dormirent; strenuè caven-

Tempore quo singuli studiis incumbere debent, caveant, ne per Collegium ultrò citròque vagentur, et quando secus necessitas postulet, teneantur licentiam impetrare.

Tandem in domesticis officiis et actionibus in colloquis inter se, vel cum externis inter nos denique omnibus, quæ ad ipsorum pietatis, ac doctrinæ institutionem spectabunt, omnes obedientiam Præsidi, aliisque ipsi subjectis ministris religiosè exhibeant eosque semper observent, ac reverentèr et modeste cum iis ubique colloquantur. Ferant patientèr se ab illis admoneri, vel etiam reprehendi, aut, si quando opus fuerit, prævaricantes aliqua pœna affici. Secus autèm facientes, et quicunque notabilitèr delinquerit, contra bonos mores, pacem et disciplinam Collegii, is e Collegio dimittatur servatis servandis.

Cum presbyteratûs dignitas tanta sit, et ministerium Apostolicum tam arduum, ut non nisi magnæ virtutis, constantiæ et fortitudinis homines ad illud exequendum requirat curandum est, ut viri probati, et in omni genere virtutum exercitati ad sacros ordines promoveantur. In memoria igitùr revocari oportet, eos qui ad mysticas oves pascendas sese devoverunt, ovium mansuetudinem induere debere; et sicut in cæteris, ita etiam in eo, quod promotionem ad Sacros ordines respicit, se a præside Collegii gubernari nullo modo repugnare. Sciant ergò nullum esse tempus suscipiendis ordinibus præfinitum, sed superiorum abitrio omnino remittendum, qui eos tantum promoveri jusserint, quos, pro virtutum meritis probatos, maximo animarum saluti emolumento futuros sperabunt. Si quos, nondum expleto studiorum curriculo ad Sacros ordines promoveri contingat; hi sedulò admonendi sunt, quod cum erunt Sacerdotes, non minus inde astrictos se intelligant, ad Collegii regulas, legesque Sanctitas observandas quàm antea; sed potius ut humilitate, obedientia tam præsidi, quam cæteris administris, et reliquarum virtutum exemplo aliis præluceant.

Tandem animadvertant, præsidem Alumnis, qui ad proprias Diœceses erunt profecturi, approbationem atque litteras commendatias illis tantummodò concessurum, qui bonum sui specimen in Collegio præbuerint, quique bonam rem fecerint, neque stulto labore consumpti fuerint.

Omnes denique intelligant tanto se aptiores huic futuros esse Collegio, et ad finem præscriptum consequendum magis idoneos, quanto ad pietatem comparandam alacriores, ad obtemperandum promptiores et ad disciplinarum studia capessenda diligentiores se exhibuerint. Unusquisque igitur Apostoli vocibus obediens qua vocatione a Deo vocatus est, in ea Domino pacificè et alacritèr in serviat. Mutuam omnes inter se caritatem, benevolentiamque in vinculo pacis, nemini dantes ullam offensionem, diligenti studio foveant: modestiam atque humilitatem colant, contentiones et æmulationes vitent quæ, cum opera carnis sint, eodem Apostolo testante maximorum sæpe malorum causa existunt. Æmulantes igitur charismata meliora, quas in aliis virtutes cernunt, eas in semelipsis exprimere contendant, et eximiæ virtutis exempla vicissim sumant; vitia autem, si quæ forte in aliis conspexerint, vitare omnino studeant, et quæ sibi in aliis displicent, admittere reformident.

QUUM immortali Regis beneficio Georgii Opt. Clementiss. Patris Patriæ III. sapientique Senatus Hibernici consilio atque liberalitate instituta jam et ornata sit Manutiæ Academia, in quâ cives nostros Catholicæ Romanæ religionis cultores ad pietatem, artesque bonas informari oporteat: quumque nec domus ulla neque civitas salva consistere nedum amplificari possit, nisi Legum saluberrimo contineatur fœdere cum Magistratuum officio et integritate: Eas ob Res Nos Curatores vestri et Patroni frequenti ordine legitimoque convocati, omnique auctoritate præditi, ut quas leges, jusve domesticum, quæve morum instituta jussemus, quasque leges, quodve jus sustulerimus, vel quibus obrogaverimus, id totum jure quam optimo factum sit, animumque advertentes primis illis legibus vestris multa et illa maxima defuisse, eique unicè caussæ prospicientes, exquisitis sententiis, constitutiones alteras rogavimus, jussimus, indicimus, antiquo jure sublato, omnique legum, quæ prius fuerat, vi depressâ, iis dumtaxat servatis, quæ solemniter repetituri pro novis et recentibus imponemus.

CAPUT PRIMUM.

De Familia et Sodalibus Academicis.

CAPUT SECUNDUM.

De Præside.

I. Jam vero quum hoc inconcussum sit, tum denique felicissimum societatis statum obtineri, si Leges per se commodæ custodes nactæ probos fuerint, postea cives parentes, permagni refert eum nobis contingere legum nostrarum magistratum ac vindicem, qui tantæ auctoritati capiendæ par futurus esse videatur. Magnâ igitur pietatis, facilitatis, doctrinæ commendatione Præses deligitor, quippe cujus præcipuum sit, per omnes provinciarum ordines dispicere, ut ne quis præscripto muneri minus satisfaciat: enimvero is expetendus est, in quem nulla residere possit amoris odique suspicio; de quo dubitari nequeat, quin unius rei pulcherrimæ ambitioni in istâ gravissimâ procuratione inserviat, ordinis nempe cum temperantiâ; is demum, qui bono Religionis reique publicæ augendo omnia se consecutum putet. Hic nempe in illis, quas par est Academicos principi suo reddere, honoris et observantiæ significationibus, non magis imperii cujusdam commodata insignia, quam propriæ virtutis ornamenta recognoscet.

II. Præterea civis esto indigena, imperii Britannici alumnus, annos natus XXX. haud minus, Sacerdotio Presbyter, quique omnis academicæ doctrinæ curriculum expleverit.

III. Academicis convocatis Præses omnium gubernator esto. Certamini literarum imperato. Candidatos alumnorum tabulis dignos adscribito. Præmia, non solum quæ jam donavimus muneris annui, verum etiam si qua posthac alia, vel insignioris præstantiæ ornamenta constituerimus cuncta solus merentibus dividito.

VI. Comitiis ordinariis ad hunc Ordinem quam accuratissime referto de omni statu Academiæ, non illa promiscuâ narratione, sed rerum et provinciarum singularum, quoque modo gestæ sint, recensione distinctâ; quod ut veriùs et religiosius assequatur, ita censemus, uti e Fide Præsidis dignitateque sit, ut omnes hic omnino Academicos, quoscerti aliquid afferre confidat, de iis rebus jubeat apud se testimonium dicere.

VII. Præses ne domo plus mensem et dimidium abesto quotannis; sin per valetudinis vel aliam gravissimam excusationem ei liberum non erit non abesse diutiùs, longiorem commeatum, si per comitia contigerit, ab hoc ipso ordine; negotiis intermissis, a duobus saltem quæsitoribus impetrato.

CAPUT TERTIUM.

De Propræside.

I. Verùm hæc tamen negotia, anxia cum sint curæque multiplicis, socium nobis videntur jure suo aliquem poscere, qui onere officiorum dividendo Propræses sit, quique interregni tempore, idemque Præsidis absentiâ vel morbo impediti operæ et prærogativæ succedat.

II. Hujus quoque esto omnium Academicorum actiones considerare, familiæ totius speculari mores, quodque famæ, disciplinæ, utilitatibus academicis proximum vel ipse vigilando, vel aliunde perlatum compererit, id omne summa cum fide ad Præsidem deferre.

III. Quæ de Patriæ, ordinis, ætatis, scientiæque conditionibus Præsidi creando adjuncta sunt, eadem de Propræside creando jubemus.

CAPUT QUARTUM.

De Magistro Officii.

I. Hic jam si quis secum recogitet quanta a vobis expectentur, quæ metæ sint propositæ, et quam oporteat vi legum æquabili undequaque disciplinam tueri, ut, quasi pacato civitatis statu, mores usu perdiscatis, religionibus colendis sanctitatem, is statim planeque sentiat, tantam causam sustineri non posse istâ publicâ, quam diximus, Præsidis et legati diligentiâ; quamobrem creandus videtur Academici magister officii ille, quem Decanum appellamus.

III. Decanus officio perpetuo Discipulorum mentes pietatis modestiæque præceptionibus imbuito; exercitationibus, quæ extra scholas frequentantur, rectorem se et adjutorem præbeto; precibus matutinis interesto, vespertinis; animi remissionibus, spatiis, studiis communibus.

IV. Noctù interdiù Decanus, eodem quo Præses et Propræses jure, alumnorum, si quæ volet, cubicula absque fraude ingreditor, idque omnino bis facito inter bina sabbata, exploraturus, num probæ munditiei gravitatisque speciem referant; libros curiosè inspicito, et si justissima suspicio præiverit, ipsa quoque, annuente Præside, scrinia et chartas.

V. Quot mensibus Præsidi narrato, si quid exploratum tenebit de animis ingeniisque Discipulorum. Quod si Præses censuerit, Decano ad eam deliberationem adhibito, unum aliquem a S. munere repellendum postea videri, hanc sententiam Antistiti ejus, cujus res agitur, literis missis ipse Præses testificator; mensibus deinde interjectis duobus, Decano iterum sententiam proponente, Præses, si antea judicatis steterit, judicatum missum facito.

VI. Delicta, noxas pœnâ, ut volet, multâve Decanus coerceto, tamen ne ad singula crimina plus argenteï coronati maximi quintam partem, multæ nomine dicito. Is porro, si quem alumnum aut iteratò nocentem, suæve auctoritatis impudenter securum notaverit, apud Præsidem nomen deferto; hic reum monendo deterreat, quod ni ter admonitus consilium iste cum factis mutaverit, domo pellitor.

CAPUT QUINTUM.

De Professoribus Classium.

I. Et quoniam juventutis non solum moribus exornandæ causâ, verum etiam sapientiæ atque humanitatis copiis instruendæ conditam Academiam formamus, jubet ipsa ratio, ut deinceps magisteria constituantur Doctrinarum Academicarum, quarum hæ perpetuæ classes sunto,

CLASSIUM DESCRIPTIO.

II. Rerum Theologicarum annuam tractationem, qualis futura est, Præses, Propræses, Magistri Theologici, anticipato consilio, componunto, scilicet quæ capita scientiæ sacræ explicanda sint, qui auctores adhibendi, qui libri versandi: sin aliquam istius doctrinæ partem Magister suo ipse labore collegerit, hanc eidem Consilio permittendam censemus judiciumque expectandum.

III. Strenuam operam navato Theologicus Dogmatum Professor, ut Discipulis persuadeat sacrosancta fidei jura esse, quæ regiæ Majestati obligatos tenent, eamque fidem nullâ vi extorqueri posse, nullâ potestate resolvi.

V. Constitutum officii tempus Professores constanter religioseque servanto; modestos docilesque discipulos continento; ingenio, tarditate, socordiâ insignes Præsidem ne celanto, qui Magistrum officii de ea re monitum facturus est.

VI. Professor si necesse habuerit ludum deserere, exorato Præside, surrogatoque ex Discipulis (si minùs earum classium fuerit, quibus tirones magistros daturi sumus) Promagistro, quem Præses non abnuat, exito; verum huic domesticæ impetrationi sex dumtaxat dies permittimus quotannis; longiorem commeatum a Curatoribus impetrato, ipso tamen Præside apud hunc Ordinem causam defendente.

CAPUT SEXTUM.

De Magistris Tironibus.

I. Illud quoque Academiæ vestræ cùm ad diuturnitatem necessarium, tum ad ingenia provehenda utilissimum fore judicamus, si, constanti Magistrorum quasi succrescente copiâ præstantissimæ quæque videantur doctrinæ non peregrè invectæ, sed domestico creatæ et propagatæ tirocinio. Quapropter allegendos censemus Magistros V. Tirones, eosque primis Classibus attribuendos.

II. Tironis erit, propriæ Classis discipulos de iis, quæ Magistro præeunte disputata sunt, interrogare horis datis, ejusdemque Professoris vel negotiis vel gravi valetudine detenti totum docendi munus excipere.

III. Primos omnium Tirones Magistros hic ipse Ordo declarabit; ceteros, prout locus debitur, Academici ad hanc formam sufficient. Theologicum Tironem Præses, Propræses, Decanus, Professores Theologici co-optanto, Philosophicum et Geometricum Tirones iidem, verum adhibitis Philosophiæ Professoribus.

IV. Candidati sunto (de Academiæ primùm Alumnis loquimur) Theologici quidem illi, qui annos jam V. Philosophici, qui IV. domicilium in Academiâ ipsâ habuerint.

V. Sin Extranei, iis duntaxat aditus petitioque conceditor, qui scripto Antistitis auctoris testimonio præstiterint se disciplinæ Academicæ cursum absolvisse; nec quemquam omnium Præses ad suffragia captanda admittito, quin is prius apud se professus sit, nomen, patriam, ordinem; itemque attulerit literas ab Episcopo regionis honorificas, item commendationem ab hoc Ordine.

VII. Candidati Theologici primis II. diebus periculum sui faciunto in re Theologica; tertio in Philosophia et Geometricis disciplinis; ultimo, Scripto cogitatè accurato. Item Philosophici perichitantor primum quidem in Theologiâ, deinde iteratò in Philosophia et Mathesi, ultimum scripto commentato. Quæstiones Theologicas Latine disputanto, reliquas Latine vel Anglice, prout ipsi Præsidi videbitur. Scriptæ commentationis disputatio apta esto ex iis argumentis, quæ propria sint Classium, quas petunt Candidati.

VIII. Perfecto certamine, Judicum deliberatio habetor, quos aut ipsos interrogavisse aut certe percontantibus affuisse necesse fuerit; Concilium Præses edicito, ibique prius recitari jubeto hoc Sextum Caput Constitutione; deinde, in medium prolatis quas diximus Candidatorum commendationibus, in hæc verba profiteantur omnes suo quisque loco suffragia daturi, "Graviter confirmo me tabellam ei delaturum, cui debere me religiosè sentio; "neque in hac muneris suffragatione neque gratiæ conciliandæ, nec animo alienato, neque "ulli aut culpæ aut commodo illiberaliter serviturum." Tum denique tesseram pro se quisque deferto, inscripto in Chartam et implicito Candidati sui nomine; tesseras Decanus aperito, Præside astante, hinc cum titè Magistrum declarato, qui suffragiorum puncta non tantum plura, sed cunctorum simul maximam partem tulerit, sin id nulli Candidatorum omnino contigeret, ut plus duabus partibus superior sit, bina comitia habentor, etiam terna; verum si nullo exitu, quem Præses nominaverit, ei statim Candidato Jus ratum esto.

IX. Qui Tironis Magistri locum privati ceperint, oportebit ut S. Ordinibus communicent, quam primum eis per ætatem licuerit; qui vero, exacto post co-optationem annuo spatio, amplius distulerint, magisterio se abdicanto.

CAPUT SEPTEM.

De Professoribus Diligendis.

I. Loco Professoris vacuo, illud totum repetendum est, quod de Candidatorum testimoniis, famæ, doctrinæ inquisitione, comitiorum Ordine, Judicum Conditione proximè edximus; quæ præterea visum est præcipere, hæc sunt.

III. Qui in Professoris Rhetoricæ vel Græcarum Latinarumque literarum locum petat, præter eos quos jam dedimus, judices habeto Professores Rhetoricæ, Græcarum Latinarumque Literarum; primo die in Theologiâ Philosophiâque decertato, altero in Græcis auctoribus, tertio Auctoribus Latinis, ultimo, scripto argumento.

CAPUT OCTAVUM.

De Alumnis.

I. Et quoniam Augusti Regis, S. Q. Hibernici munificentiâ effectum est, ut tantam pecuniam habeamus jam publicè addictam, quanta Alumnis CC. vitæ subsidia una cum Doctrinarum instrumento suppeditare possit, ideirco quò tanti beneficii seminibus æquabiliter sparsis ubique fructus modestiæ exsurgant, quæ propria est hujus instituti, simulque gratissima fama pervagetur optimè de nobis meritorum, ita jubemus;

II. Jurisdictionis Armacanæ et Cassiliensis, utrinsque LX. Dubliniensis et Tuamensis utriusque XL. alumnos deferendi jus esto. Quod si borum numero postea augendo opportunitas accesserit, ex hac perpetuo comparatione enumerantor.

IV. Tum ingenii doctrinæque, quæ in Candidato sit, judicium habetor a tribus saltem Magistris, publico edicto, nullâ multâ, a Præside convocatis; nec is recipitor, quin præsentium suffragiis vicerit videri se idoneum, qui infimarum saltem classium in subsellis versetur.

V. Antea vero in Academicos ne refertor quam Præsidi tradiderit Scribæ publici libellum testantem hunc ritè in verba Regis Aug. sacramentum dixisse, itemque scripto pollicitus sit se nec ullam coire Conjurationis secretæ societatem, nec ullam postea coiturum esse.

VI. Denique Candidatus, animadversis Alumnorum officiis, quæ in Libro separatim describenda servandaque Præses ostendet, fideliter se obtemperaturum promittito, nomenque is tabulis ipse adscribito quasi obsidem perpetuæ voluntatis.

CAPUT NONUM.

De Exercitationibus Judicationibusque Literariis.

I. Anni Academici uno mense confecto, proximo statim die non impedito, exercitatio literaria habetor; eaque, principio a Classe Dogmatum capto, mensiruâ vice refertor, deinceps aliis classium disciplinis in idem munus succedentibus. Conventus hi fiunto continuò post scholam matutinam; temporis legem nec horâ longioris nec semihora angustioris Præses definito. Ea certaminis argumenta sunto quæ mense proximo disputata fuerant Quæstionum defensores Professor ipse dato, adversarios Præses.

II. Qui Theologiæ annuam tractationem perceperint, ii omnes alumni, a natu maximo initio facto, septimanis diebus vel fidei rudimenta sermone familiari tradunto, vel itiam nonnihil orationis declamanto: usque ad finem anni Academici hic ordo perpetuus iterator; experimento locum et tempus Præses statuito, multam recusantibus imponito; actioni satis esto semihoræ spatiolum; academici omnes adsunto.

III. Quaterna in annos singulos judicia literaria exercentor. Prima judicia habentor Diebus XII. XI. X. Kal. Januarias. Altera Dieb. III. Prid. Id. Idibusq; Martiis. Tertia D. XIV. XIII. XII. Quæ Kal Junias. Ultima 9. per sex continuos Dies ab XI. Kal. ad V. Kalendas Mens. Aug.

VI. Quod si per Alumnorum frequentiam, temporisque angustias fieri minus potuerit, ut de singulis omnes simul Judices cognoscant, Præses, factâ partitione, alios aliis, quos quibusque volet, discipulos Judicibus ita attribuito, ut totum, intra legitima tempora, negotium concludatur; attamen de tribus tantum primis cognitionibus dictum intelligitote.

VII. Intera Alumnorum si quis visus fuerit, ex sui Judicis sententiâ, ignaviter se expedivisse, eam rem Judex ad Socios Questionis referto. Hi, citato Reo, causaque conjunctim recognitâ, si aut cuncti aut certe melior pars SECUNDUM DELATA judicaverint, Præses delinquentem conceptis verbis admoneto. Magistris circumstantibus. hæc verò admonitio ad eam rem valebit, ut si judiciis proximè secuturis idem æque turpiter se gesserit, extemplo amoveatur, aut deploratæ ineptiæ aut nequitiæ impudentis manifestus.

CAPUT DECIMUM.

De Bibliothecæ Præfecto.

I. Frustra tamen legibus sanciendis vel ipsa Sapientia conarctur doctrinas elicere, ni librorum copia, ex quo fonte omnia præclara haurienda sunt, et abunde suppetat et diligenti custodia servetur: ut huic igitur caussæ provisum sit, hæc decernimus,

III. Eò libris qui nunc habentur translatis, compositisque, Præfectus indicem omnium in bibliotheca servandum describito, ejusque exemplum Præses possideto. Ad singularum Literarum titulos interstitia sunto, quò locari possint aliorum auctorum nomina, novosque, si præterea accedent, Scriptorum Libros diligenter acmaturè Præfectus curato, ut magnæ recensioni adscribantur, nominaque officio trimestri ipse Præsidi dato.

V. Bis omnibus annis Præses, vel si hic sæpius noluerit, saltem semel, Propræses, Decanus et si quos e Professorum ordine Præses adsumserit, Bibliothecam feriò recensento. Libros observanto quâ formâ, quâ conditione sint. Pro Libris quos vel abesse viderint, injuriâve vitiatos esse, aut alios a Præfecto repom intra VII. dies jubento, aut, si illud fieri non poterit, multam hi vel eorum plures inroganto; de reliquo Bibliothecæ instrumento eamdem legem tradimus.

VII. Hi soli commentandi causâ in Bibliothecam admittuntor; I. Magistri. II. Qui Academicas IV annorum disciplinas perceperint, si, Professore aliquo commendante, Præside approbante, impetraverint. III. Qui, Præside permittente, Magistrum aliquem Præfecto sponsorem dederint.

VIII. Præfectus vigilato, ne librum quis omnino ex Bibliothecâ ullamve supellectilis partem auferat. Qui fecerit, ablatum reddito, simulque duplo tenetor, ejusque multæ Præses, Decanus, Præfectus, plures, ambove recuperatores sunto. Si bis fecerit, ei multa altera inrogator, posteaque Bibliotheca clausa esto in omne tempus.

IX. Si quis librum conscribillando, lacerando, obliterando, maculandove corruperit, idem duplo tenetor. Quòd si hic malo animo fecisse convictus erit, par esto culpa ac si librum abstulerit; nempe si bis convictus eo crimine, exclusus perpetuo maneto.

X. Qui levius peccaverint, libris suo loco non repositis, silentio rupto, gravitate neglectâ, his multam Præfectus ipse irrogato eâdem qua Decanus potestate; omnisque ex hisce multis collata pecunia ad Bibliothecam ornandam impenditor. Qui verò multam admiserit, ei denuò Bibliothecæ copia dator, si prius Præfecto a Procuratore tradiderit scriptam confessionem multæ dissolutæ.

XII. De Bibliothecæ Præfecto creando ea lex tota valitura est, quam in causa Magistri Officii sanximus, absenti pœna quoque similis imponenda, eademque commeatus impetrando et conditio et tempora. Præfecto Administri sunto quos hic legerit, Præses concesserit, hique muneris diem perpetuò obeunto, Præfecto vel æquissimè absente.

CAPUT UNDECIMUM.

De Procuratore.

I. Quæ pro muniendâ pietate, provehendis moribus, artibusque in Academiam vestram deducendis hactenus decrevimus, ea nos cuivis facile confidimus probare posse. Superest ut jam de Academicis possessionibus dicamus, omnique domesticæ administrationis ratione, quâ sublata, inanis omnis ille noster labor in Disciplinis constituendis futurus sit.

II. His de causis Procurator Academicis adjungendus est. Hic vel disjunctam munus habere poterit, vel una atque eadem operâ et Procuratoris et Propræfidis, id quod nunc usuvenit, personam gerere.

XI. Interea, ut quem tanta juris severitate obligavimus suo quoque honore relevemus, ut in liberâ tamen custodiâ provinciam exornet, Procurator servorum, quorum opera ad quotidianam Rei familiar, administrationem pertinet, omnium Magister esto, eosque, Præside approbante, conducito, exigito, oscitantes punito; exeundi veniam dato; quos volet domi contineto.

XII. Œconomo, Coquo, reliquis conductis supellectilem unicuique propriam et vasa annumerata et exscripta tradito, nique pollicentor se salva custodituros; trimestribus solutionibus, instrumensibi quisque traditum exponunto Procuratori; si quid ad plenam recensionem requiretur, ejus rei deperditæ pretium e mercedis summâ deduci patiuntor.

CAPUT DUODECIMUM.

De Magistratibus Academicis.

I. Magistratus Academicos hoc ordine rogamus; Propræsidem; Decanum: Bibliothecæ Præfectum; Procuratorem; S. Theologiæ Professores, ut quisque a creatione maximus est; Physicæ Experientiæ Professorem; Dialecticæ et Metaphysicæ; Geometricarum Artium; Rhetoricæ; Græcarum Latinarumque literarum; ultimos Tirones Magistros eodem ordine quo classium quibus adhærent Professores.

II. Hi omnes intra XXX. quisque a creatione diem Præsidi tradunto Scribæ publici testimonia testantia se fidem jure-jurando Regiæ Majestati obligavisse, itemque Professionem sua uniuscujusque manu scriptam, se nec ullam conjurationis latentem societatem coire, neque aliâs coituros; animadversisque domesticis legibus, coram Præside affirmanto se dicto audientes futuros; denique propositi monumentum nomen quisque suum tabulis iis adscribunto, in quibus et ipsas leges, Professorum Administrorumque subscriptiones, testimonia scribarum nec plura comprehensa Præses asservaturus est.

V. Magistratus omnes strenue hortamur, ut in munere quisque suo fungendo, non solum constantes, verum etiam alacres sese præbeant; inhumanitatis vel minimam speciem reformident, quum patriæ magis conciliationem potestatis una cum optimo urbanitatis colore illorum auctoritas habeat, qui et munere vitæ præceptores, vitæque ipsius consuetudine socii sunt, comitesque perpetui: ne ulla inter Academicos dissidia patientur, ipsique memores personæ et dignitatis eam, quæ nostræ Religionis una propria est, benignæ pacis concordiam communi alant spiritu: quos præceptionibus erudiunt, iisdem claro virtutum exemplo præluceant; hominumque invidiam et contentum, quæ res in Academiæ forte interitum, infamiam certe redundabunt, vitæ innocentiâ, famæque præstantiâ deprecentur.

VI. Si quid scriptorum suorum Magistratus, alumnusve edere voluerit, id facito, Præside concedente, a quo Curatores jus repetituri sunt, quidquid improbè positum in istis lucubrationibus exstiterit; si Præses intercesserit quin edatur, alteri provocationem ad Curatores habento. Judices hi dabunt in causâ non pessimâ Magistratus, Academicos a se delectos, qui si rectè fieri posse statuerint, causamque receperint, liber editor, Judicum ipsorum periculo.

CAPUT DECIMUM TERTIUM.

De Præmiis et de Pœnis.

I. Decanus in tabulas ed eam rem confectas rejicito, si quid memoria dignum adeptus erit, discipulis quotidie recensendis, ipsasque tabulas Præsidi recognoscendas tradito, mensibus exactis: porrò tertio ante solemnia certamina die, Decanus, Præses, Propræses, communi auctoritate, illorum nomina fastis Academicis adscribunto, qui morum integritate præcipuâ, officiisque religiose colendis, honorem fuerim commemorabilem assecuti.

II. Professores Classium commentariis notanto, si qui Discipulorum industriâ, profectibusque magnopere præstiterint, horumque nomina trimis mensibus deferunto ad Præsidem, qui in fastis iisdem suo quæque loco commemoraturus est.

III. Post solemnem Quæstionem, atque priusquam docti Victores in Concilio renuntientur, ii fasti recitantor; deinde Præses hortabitur, ut illius quoque laudis digna ratio habeatur in præmiis adjudicandis.

IV. Iisdem fastis describitor judicii quoque solemnis eventus; hoc titulo—Qui defensores annuo certamine; eaque scripto testata nobilitas præcipuam auctoritatem obtineto in reddendis (post absolutum studiorum cursum) alumnorum a Præside commendationibus, tum etiam ad præmia et honoris gradus consequendos, si præter ea quæ nunc sunt, alia novæ dignitatis insignia Patroni aut aliunde impetraverint aut ipsi constituerint.

5. Si quis graviter per injuriam corpus percusserit.

VII. Professor si die profesto ludo abfuerit, ejusdem diei cibariis et stipendio careto, idque Decano Præsidi atque Procuratori renuntiante; hi in tabulas ad hanc notationem compositas referunto. Procurator diurni stipendii summam creditorum rationibus subjungito; solvendi tempore multum prius detrahito, reliquum dissolvito.

VIII. Quod si Professor id sæpius admiserit, hunc Præses Decano adstante admoneto isque si denuo admonitus securè et obfirmatò perstiterit in istâ fraude, ad hunc Ordinem a Præside defertor. Curatores, causâ cognitâ, pertinaciæ convictum vel exauctorabunt, vel alius remedii Academicæ saluti consultum facient.

IX. Eadem judiciorum forma Professoribus, Tironibus, Magistris, Administris omnibus expectanda est, quicunque vel datâ opera, vel per insinuationem impia, inverecunda, in jus domesticum seditiosa, aut in summam Regis, Reique publicæ Majestatem maledica tractationi, sermonibusve admiscuerint, etiamque qui turpis delicti infamiam contraxerint. Illud tamen proprium hujus criminis statuimus, ut ne latiùs scelerum inflammatio depascatur, aut labes fœditatis inficiat diutiùs, Præses confestim, illoque vel absente vel prævaricante, Propræses, Decanus ad Concilium vocent, cui Præses Propræses, Decanus, Professores Theol. interfuturi sunt, quive horum innoxii sint eòque reum postulent, citent, interrogent de crimine, delatione facta, vel suspicione in oculos incurrente. Quod si Reus aut contumaciam adhibuerit, aut FECISSE visus erit sententiis pluribus, huic muncre interdictum esto, alio in provinciam substituto, si minus his legibus Rei absentiæ provisum est. Comitiis statim insequentibus Curatores judicium recognoscent, reumque, si appareat, in crimine deprehensum, non solum munere privaturi sunt, sed etiam ab Academico domicilio perpetuâ exclusione submoturi.

XV. Nunc quoniam absentiæ pœnam propositam habetis tam vehementem ac necessariam, quò delicti hujus certissima probatio indicetur, Janitorem Præses apponito portæ domesticæ literarum peritum, isque Alumnorum tam nomina quam exitus atque reditus tempora scripto libello notato. Vespere quotidie, unà cum remissis clavibus, Præsidi Libellum Janitor legendum tradito: hic perlectis nominibus VIDI subscribito; nominis et prænominis cautionem addito.

CAPUT DECIMUM QUARTUM

De veteri Jure Academico.

ULTIMA SANCTIO.

I. Experimento constat jussorum mole atque infinità vi hominum citiùs obrui mentes quam actiones dirigi: idcirco, quum ab alacritate vestra, legibus haud ita multis, justis tamen et exquisitis, potissimum spes affulgeat fore, ut recens in lucem prolata famamque hominum Academia vestra ad confirmatam virilis quasi ætatis laudem possit adolescere, pluribus jubere abstinemus, hanc quam videtis circumscriptionem arbitrati utilitatibus vestris non deesse, vestræque, quod longe maximum est, innocentiæ etiam superesse.

II. Quod reliquum est, ut omnes Academici percalleant, quid quemque facere, quid vitare oporteat, ad principia anni perpetuò academici hæ leges a Præside in ædiculâ recitantor, aut a Magistratu, Præside jubente, posteaquam SANCTO SPIRITUI sacerdotes ad altare implorantes fecerint lege atque more sacrosancto.

III. Item post trimestrem Quæstionem hæ leges recitantor: locum publicum ipse Præses destinato. Legum recitationi intersunto Academiæ familia tota, Magistratus, Alumni, Discipuli tam ii, qui nomini Academico jure adscripti sunt, quam qui annuâ pensione nomen redimunt.

IV. Si quid in his legibus obscurum ambiguumve videbitur, illud de Præsidis Consiliique sententiâ, (Propræsidem dicimus, Decanum, Professores Theologicos,) definitor. Si præterea fiet, ut horum aliis alia significatio placuerit, causam ipsam reservandum, esse dicimus ultimo hujus Ordinis auxilio; medio tempore, ei definitioni acquiescendum, nisi pœnæ irrogationem habeat, quam Præses attulerit.

V. Itaque Nos Curatores vestri et Patroni, quibus ea solum spes eaque ambitio insedit animo atque oculis obversatur, ut ista Domus humanitate, religione, doctrinis excolendis, disseminandis benefica sit, utque pace pacatissima, innocentiâ florentissima, virtutibus beatissima prædicetur; deinde certa jam nunc vestiæ omnium Modestiæ præcipientes gaudia, Præsidis primum fide appellatâ, qui ordinis princeps, idemque Legum defensor est; postea Magistratuum, ipsorumque adeò alumnorum studiis, alacritate, obtemperantia, ope, quam religiose præstabunt, advocatâ, Legis denique publicæ imperio et voce jubentes hasce leges, hoc jus domesticum, disciplinam, judiciaque Academiæ Manutianæ proponimus præscribimus, declaramus uti jure quam optimo rogatas, perlatas, indicatas Academiæ Manutianæ, pœnarum scriptis sanctionibus, si quis contravenerit, dehinc adhibendis.

The Scholars generally went to the public Schools or Universities, otherwise the number of Masters would have been at least double.

The whole number of Scholars in the Colleges of the Lombards, Nantz, Doway, Antwerp, and 20 in Bourdeaux, received Priest's Orders before they went abroad, and by the exercise of their functions were enabled to support themselves during the course of their studies. In the Community at Paris there were foundations for about sixty scholars made by various persons. In Toulouse twelve. In Bourdeaux twenty were defrayed by Pensions from the king of France. In Salamanca thirty-two by the king of Spain. In Rome sixteen. In Lisbon twelve. In Louvain twenty, by foundations of different persons.

Of the whole number there were supported by Foundations - -	166
And by the exercise of their functions as Priests - - - -	260
Total who may be considered as receiving gratuitous support -	426
